

Alexander Rodriguez joins Law Offices of Hirji and Chau, LLP as one of our new Associate Litigation Attorneys

Description

Alex Rodriguez is a graduate of Loyola Law School and was admitted to practice law in California in 2018. The importance of education was instilled in Alex at a young age by his parents who were educators, and inspired Alex to pursue and gain experience as a classroom teacher. Prior to Law School, Alex obtained his undergraduate degree from Cornell University and went on to become a high school math teacher at Great Oaks Charter School in Newark, New Jersey.

Alex joined the Law Offices of Hirji and Chau, LLP. as a Law Clerk in 2017. Since that time, he has learned the ins and outs of special education law, and civil litigation. Now, as an attorney, Alex represents students and their families at IEP meetings, depositions and hearings in state and federal court.

At Loyola Law School, Alex was active in Loyola's Project for Innocence Clinic and Loyola's Young Lawyers Program. Alex has interned with Children's Law Center of Los Angeles, and the Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office, and served a clerkship with Honorable Victor Chavez, Judge of the Superior Court of California.

Category

1. Blog
2. Event
3. Legal News

Date Created

2019/01/26

Author

lawyer4children